

At the Curia of Their Majesties Edward and Thyra held in the Barony of Stonemarche on 27 January 2013, A.S. 47, at the Market Day at Birka, the following became East Kingdom Law:

(only revised sections are listed; all other sections remain unchanged)

Section II. The Crown

B. Crown Tourney

- B.1.a. Gentles may enter a Crown Tourney only as couples ~~of opposite gender,~~ with one entrant the combatant and the other the consort. A gentle may only be part of one entrant couple and may be neither champion nor consort for any other gentle, save that the ~~lord and lady~~ gentles comprising any entrant couple may champion each other. (Said ~~lord and lady~~ gentles hereinafter referred to as a combatant couple.)
- B.1.e. Each entrant must be a Society member with access to Pikestaff at his/her residence, and must be able to provide proof of Society membership to The Crown or Their designated representative.
- B.1.f. Each entrant must have resided in the East Kingdom for at least one year immediately prior to The Crown Tourney and must be able to demonstrate reasonable levels of participation in diverse activities in the Kingdom during that period. If an entrant does not meet this requirement, but is able to demonstrate to The Crown's satisfaction by his/her own words or by recommendation of peers of the Kingdom that s/he has sufficient familiarity with East Kingdom Law and custom, The Crown may waive this requirement.
- B.1.j. All entrants must submit a letter of intent by letter or email to The Crown Prince and Princess and Kingdom Seneschal no later than thirty days prior to Crown Tourney. This requirement may be waived, on a case-by-case basis, by The Crown Prince and Princess.
- i. The letter of intent must include the Society name, legal name, postal address, telephone number, membership number and expiration date, and years of residency for both entrants.
 - ii. If possible, Letters of intent must be accompanied by proof of valid Society membership should include email addresses for both entrants.

[remainder of section B.1. continues unchanged]

Section IV. Kingdom Officers

D. Terms of Office and Review of Kingdom Officers

- D.1.e. The terms of Office for Kingdom Officers will begin according to the ~~following~~ schedule maintained on the East Kingdom website. The change of Office will occur at the first possible Royal Progress to be held after the first of the month indicated in the ~~above~~ schedule.
[table of beginning terms of office by month removed]
- D.1.f. Should any Kingdom Officer leave Office before the end of a term, the remainder of that term will be completed by the Officer's deputy or chosen replacement with the approval of The Crown, ~~with the review and/or renewal occurring on the schedule above~~. The Crown may appoint the deputy or replacement for a transition period of up to six months, regardless of the expiration date of the Officer's term, and may extend that period up to the completion of the entire term if longer than six months. Subsequent terms of Office for the successor will be handled by The Crown on a case-by-case basis.

[remainder of section D.1. continues unchanged]

D.3. All Kingdom Officers whose office is subject to term limitations will have their term (first, second or third) and warrant expiration date published monthly within the Regnum Orientalis of the Pikestaff and the Full Officer Listing page of the East Kingdom website. They will also inform the Kingdom Chronicler and Kingdom Seneschal of any change to their term and warrant, in a timely manner. These Kingdom Officers have the authority, if they so wish, to require their deputies to meet this publishing requirement.

Section IX. Awards

E. Polling Orders

E.1. While the decision to induct gentles into Polling Orders lies with The Crown or Heirs, prior to doing so ~~€~~They are required to request comments from the Companions of Their Polling Orders regarding candidates for induction into the Orders. These requests or comments will take the form of written polls as described below. No candidate may be inducted into a Polling Order without first being included on a poll within the most recent twelve months.

[N.B.: no changes enacted to IX.F. regarding the Companions of the Rose.]
