 - b. CANADA: Quebec, Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Newfoundland

B. Body of Laws

1. All previous Laws not listed in this version of the "Laws of the East Kingdom" are repealed.
2. This document and the laws herein are referenced as "East Kingdom Law(s)" or "Law(s)".
3. Only the Laws listed herein along with the Governing Documents of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. ("Governing Documents") are in effect in the East Kingdom. The Governing Documents include the following as amended from time to time by the SCA:
 - a. Corpora
 - b. By-Laws
 - c. Corporate Policies
 - d. Articles of Incorporation
4. In the case of any conflict between East Kingdom Law and the Governing Documents, including definitions of terms, the Governing Documents take precedence.

C. Laws and Edicts

1. Laws may be enacted, amended, or repealed only by the Crown (as defined in Section II), after discussion at Their Kingdom Curia. Once enacted, Laws remain part of East Kingdom Law unless amended or repealed.
2. Edicts are decrees issued by the Crown. They last for the duration of the issuing Reign only, and may not repeal or suspend East Kingdom Law.
3. Laws and Edicts take effect upon announcement at an event and the subsequent publication in Pikestaff.
4. Any changes to East Kingdom Law must be received by the Kingdom Chronicler no later than thirty days after the Kingdom Curia at which the changes were decided. Changes received after this deadline will not be published and therefore will not take effect.
5. The Kingdom Chronicler may not publish any changes to East Kingdom Law without the signatures of the Sovereign, Consort, and Kingdom Seneschal.

D. Current Version Maintenance

The current version of the East Kingdom Law, including a Table of Contents and Index, will be maintained by the Kingdom Seneschal and/or their Deputy, and made available on the Kingdom website.

E. Official Language

The official written language of the East Kingdom is English. Laws, policies, reports, or other materials may be translated into other languages. However, in case of discrepancies between the original English documents and any translations, the English language version will take precedence and serve as the official version.

Section II. The Crown and Heirs

A. Definitions and Rank

1. The "Crown" is the Sovereign and Consort, referenced together.
 - a. The Sovereign and Consort have equal status, precedence, and power.
 - b. They may use any title(s) allowed by the Governing Documents and the College of Heralds.

2. The "Heirs" are the victor of Crown Tournament and their consort, referenced together.
 - a. The victor and their consort have equal status, precedence, and power.
 - b. They may use any title(s) allowed by the Governing Documents and the College of Heralds.

B. Crown's Word

The Crown's word has the force of Law except where it conflicts with East Kingdom Law or the Governing Documents.

C. Duties and Powers

1. The Crown must know and uphold East Kingdom Law and the Governing Documents.
2. The Crown will chair Curia.
3. The Crown must attend Their Coronation, the Crown Tournament to determine Their Heirs, and the Coronation of Their Heirs.
4. No Sovereign or Consort may hold any other office or court appointment at any time during Their Reign. Any such office or appointment, along with accompanying files, must be turned over to a deputy or successor before Coronation. Should a Territorial Baronage become the Heirs they must appoint a Vicar for Their barony for the duration of Their Reign.
5. The Crown and Heirs of the East Kingdom shall use Their officially-provided online accounts for all business of Their offices.
6. Within one (1) month following the Coronation of their successors, the former Crown must return all regalia used during their reign to the Kingdom Chamberlain. The Chamberlain must verify within one month of the return that all regalia were returned and in good condition, and so affirm to the Kingdom Chancellor of the Exchequer to release the regalia deposit in accordance with East Kingdom Financial Policy.
7. The Crown may oversee treaties between the East and other Kingdoms according to the following procedures.
 - a. The Crown and Heirs must all specifically agree, in writing, to the wording of a proposed treaty.
 - b. The Crown and Heirs must then consult with no fewer than six Royal Peers of Ducal or County rank who reside in the East Kingdom regarding the wording of the proposed treaty. A list of the Royal Peers consulted will be kept on file with the Kingdom Seneschal.
 - c. If, after consulting with the Royal Peers, the Crown chooses to alter the wording of the proposed treaty, the process will begin again.
 - d. To be enacted, a treaty must be signed by the Sovereign and Consort. The treaty may also be signed by any other parties as deemed necessary or appropriate by the Crown or by the Laws or Leaders of the Kingdom or Group with which the treaty is established.
 - e. Once signed by the parties listed above, a copy of the treaty will be kept on file by the Kingdom Seneschal.
 - f. Treaties may only be amended or revoked by following the same procedures outlined above.
8. The Crown will invest the victor and consort of Their Crown Tournament as both Heirs of the East Kingdom and Protectors of The Crown Principality of Tir Mara.
 - a. This designation is ceremonial in nature, and does not confer any ability to warrant subordinate officers, proclaim banishments, or bestow armigerous awards, without specific Crown approval for specific recipients.
 - b. The Heirs may use any title allowed by the Governing Documents and the College of Heralds to indicate this ceremonial designation, including "Prince and Princess of Tir Mara" as has been the custom.
 - c. The Crown will retain Their status as Protectors of Tir Mara during the time between Their Coronation and the Crown Tournament to choose Their successors.

D. Royal List / Crown Tournament

1. A Royal List is a properly constituted armored combat tournament to determine the successors to current royalty. They are known as a "Crown List" or "Crown Tournament" for kingdoms and a "Coronet List" or "Coronet Tournament" for principalities.
2. Royal Lists will be held using chivalric (rattan) combat unless otherwise authorized by the Board of Directors of the SCA. They will be overseen by the Earl Marshal and the appropriate Lesser Officer who oversees the form of combat.
3. Coronet Tournaments will be held under the Laws of the Principality, which are separate from these East Kingdom Laws and are not outlined in this document.
4. Crown Tournaments

- a. Each entrant in a Crown Tournament must be fighting for a prospective consort. A gentle may only be a member of one entrant couple, though both gentles of the same combatant couple may enter the tournament, each to fight for the other.
- b. All entrant couples must submit a Letter of Intent ("LoI") to the Heirs (or Crown, if after Coronation) and Kingdom Seneschal no later than thirty days prior to Crown Tournament.
 - i. The LoI may be submitted via the online survey link provided by the Kingdom Seneschal (preferred method), or by email.
 - ii. The LoI must include:
 1. The Society name, legal name, postal address, residence address (if different from postal address), years of residency in the East Kingdom, telephone number, membership number, and membership expiration date for both entrants; and
 2. The authorization expiration date(s) for all entrants intending to compete in the Crown Tournament.
 3. International Travel
 - a. At least one member of each entrant couple must affirm that they do not have knowledge of any basis why they would not be able to cross the United States/Canadian international border ("border") for the duration of their reign; or
 - b. If any of the events designated as mandatory to validate a reign per Section II.C.3. will require travel across the border during the reign for which the Crown Tournament is being held, both members of each entrant couple must affirm that they do not have knowledge of any basis why they would not be able to cross the border for the duration of their reign.
- c. No gentle will enter a Crown Tournament without intending an honorable attempt to compete for the Crown.
- d. Consorts are required to be present at Crown Tournament. The Crown at their discretion may choose to waive this requirement for all consorts.

 - ii. All entrants and consorts must be residents of the Kingdom, must have resided within the borders of the East Kingdom for at least one year immediately prior to the Crown Tournament, and must be able to demonstrate reasonable levels of participation in diverse activities in the Kingdom during that period.
- i. Exceptions to Eligibility
 - i. The current Sovereign and Consort of the East Kingdom, and the Coronets of any Principalities, may not enter any Crown Tournament.
 - ii. The Kingdom Seneschal and the Kingdom Minister of the Lists may only enter the last regularly-scheduled Crown Tournament held during their terms in office, provided a deputy acceptable to the Crown has been appointed to assume the respective officer's duties.
 - iii. Kingdom Greater Officers may only enter a Crown Tournament provided a deputy acceptable to the Crown has been appointed to assume the duties of their office.
- j. Withdrawal and Removal
 - i. Any entrant may withdraw from a Crown Tournament at any point in time by notifying the Kingdom Minister of the Lists, and both the entrant and their consort will be eliminated from the Crown Tournament. In the case of a combatant couple fighting each for the other one entrant may withdraw but the other entrant may continue, with the express permission of the withdrawing entrant.
 - ii. An entrant may be removed from a Crown Tournament at any time by the Crown, Earl Marshal, or the appropriate Lesser Officer who oversees the form of combat, for marshallate infractions or any infractions of the Rules of the List. If an entrant is disqualified, their consort is also eliminated; if the entrant and consort are fighting for one another, both entrant and consort will be eliminated from the Crown Tournament.
 - iii. If a Crown Tournament is deemed to be invalid and must be re-fought, the Crown may disqualify any entrants they deem responsible for the invalidation of the originally scheduled Crown Tournament.

E. The Succession

1. There will be two Reigns per year, with Coronations and Crown Tournaments to be scheduled as stated in Section VIII.A.
2. If either the Sovereign or the Consort is unable to fulfill the duties of the Crown, the remaining Monarch may serve the remainder of Their reign.
 - a. The remaining Monarch, in compliance with the Governing Documents and East Kingdom Law, and unless expressly prohibited in either document, will have all the duties and powers of the Crown, as if both Monarchs were still reigning, but shall not have the duties and powers defined in either document as belonging to the Sovereign or Consort alone. These duties and powers include:
 - i. Bestowal of awards, with the following limitations:
 1. A Sovereign reigning alone may not bestow the Order of Courtesy on behalf of the missing Consort. If a gentle is found to be worthy of this award, the Sovereign must consult at least three East Kingdom subjects who are members of the Order of the Rose, and, if favorable, a representative from the Order of the Rose will bestow the award in the Sovereign's court.
 2. A Consort reigning alone may not bestow Awards of Excellence on behalf of the missing Sovereign. If a gentle is found to be worthy of this award, the Consort must consult at least three East Kingdom subjects who have reigned in the East Kingdom as Sovereign, and, if favorable, a representative from this group will bestow the award in the Consort's court.
 3. The remaining Monarch may not bestow Awards of Esteem on behalf of the missing Monarch.
 4. A Monarch reigning alone may bestow twenty (20) Cyphers, but may not bestow any from the office of the missing Monarch (i.e., a Sovereign reigning alone may give twenty (20) Sovereign's Cyphers, but cannot give Consort's Cyphers, and vice-versa).
 - ii. Be the Chair of Curia.
 - iii. Sign in place of the missing Monarch where signature of both Monarchs is required.
 - b. The Governing Documents give specific duties and powers to the Sovereign. When a Consort is reigning alone, these will be adjusted as follows:
 - i. IV.C.8. "The Sovereign supervises combat on the field of honor." This duty shall be performed by the Earl Marshal.
 - ii. IX.B.3. "All combatants must be presented to, and be acceptable to, the Sovereign or their representative." The representative of the Sovereign is the Consort.
 - iii. IX.B.5. "The Sovereign or the Marshallate may bar any weapon or armor from use upon the field of combat. Should a warranted marshal bar any weapon or armor, an appeal may be made via the established marshallate chain of command up to and including the Sovereign to allow the weapon or armor." The Consort may not take over this duty. The Sovereign is considered removed from the chain of command, with the final appeal to be made to the Earl Marshal.
3. In the event that both the Sovereign and the Consort are unable to fulfill Their duties:
 - a. If Heirs have already been selected, the Kingdom Seneschal shall hold the Crowns in trust until the Heirs ascend the throne.
 - i. The Crowns may not be held in trust by the Kingdom Seneschal for longer than two months.
 - ii. In the event that the intervening time between the abdication and scheduled coronation exceeds two months, the Heirs may assume the duties and titles of the Crown at any event already published in Pikestaff.
 - iii. The scheduled coronation event may still take place as scheduled to include all the pageantry and ceremony as planned.
 - iv. The Heirs will be crowned by whichever Royal Peer(s) They so choose.
 - b. If Heirs have not been selected:
 - i. A Crown Tournament must be held at the earliest possible date. The Kingdom Seneschal and the Earl Marshal shall preside over this tournament.
 1. Letters of Intent containing the information specified in Section II.D.4.b. must be submitted to the Kingdom Seneschal. The deadline for LoIs is two hours before the scheduled start time for the Tournament. The Kingdom Seneschal may not accept incomplete letters.
 2. The Kingdom Seneschal must admit all entrant couples that meet the requirements as set forth in the Governing Documents and East Kingdom Law Section II.D.4.

3. The Kingdom Seneschal will not have the right to impose any extra conditions upon participation in the Crown Tournament.
4. The format of such a Crown Tournament will be a double elimination list. The first round will be a random draw, and the final round will be modeled after the previous Crown Tournament.
 - ii. The victor and their consort will be crowned as Sovereign and Consort immediately following the Tournament by whichever Royal Peers They so choose.
 - iii. The new Crown will schedule a Crown Tournament to ensure the succession as soon as possible. Their Crown Tournament must be held within ninety days of the Crown's ascension to the throne.
- c. These Crown Tournaments do not need to follow the regional rotation. When the Kingdom has both a Crown and Heirs in place, the rotation will resume as if these Crown Tournaments had been held in the proper rotation.
4. If a Sovereign and/or Consort must leave the throne temporarily due to an emergency, such as call to military service, serious injury, or illness:
 - a. They must alert the remaining Monarch, Heirs (if any), and all Greater Officers with as much information as possible regarding when the leave will start and tentative length of absence.
 - b. If only the Sovereign or Consort is to be absent, the other will have the powers as stated above in Section II.E.2.
 - c. If both the Sovereign and Consort are to be absent, the Kingdom Seneschal shall hold the Crowns as stated above in Section II.E.3.
 - i. The Kingdom Seneschal will not hold the Crowns for longer than two months. If the temporary absence will be longer, it will be considered that the Sovereign and Consort have resigned from their positions.
 - ii. If Heirs have not been selected, the Kingdom Seneschal and the Earl Marshal will preside over the next regularly scheduled Crown Tournament as described above in Section II.3.b.i.
 - d. The returning Monarchs may resume all duties and powers of the Crown if the following conditions are met:
 - i. The Coronation of Their Heirs has not yet occurred.
 - ii. The returning Monarch(s) must provide documentation of the emergency to the remaining Monarch, if any, and the Greater Officers.
 - iii. The Kingdom Seneschal shall call a vote of the Greater Officers. The Monarch(s) may be returned to Their office with a 2/3 majority vote in favor of reinstatement.
5. If either of the Heirs is unable to assume the throne, the Crown, in consultation with the remaining Heir and the Kingdom Seneschal, shall determine whether the Heir will be invested and serve as stated in Section II.E.2. above, or if a new Crown Tournament will be held to ensure the succession.

- 1) Legal and SCA names, and contact information, for any local, Kingdom, or Society Officers who were referenced in, or were involved in any way with, the complaint as well as any existing written documentation of said involvement.

 - 4) The outcome of any actions taken through appropriately defined SCA procedures, as defined in Corpora.
 - 5) Any other supporting documentation relating to the complaint including but not limited to emails, correspondence, and/or documents.
- b. Within fifteen (15) days of receipt of a complaint or the allowed thirty (30)-day extension stated above, the Crown will inform the Complainant(s), the Heirs (if there are Heirs at that time), and the Kingdom Seneschal in writing (hereinafter the "Notification Date") whether the matter will be:
- i. Remanded to the Kingdom Seneschal or other appropriate Kingdom Officer for resolution;
 - ii. Submitted to a Grievance Committee;
 - iii. Submitted to a Court of Chivalry;
 - iv. Dismissed due to the Crown's decision; or
 - v. Dismissed as an invalid complaint, on one of these grounds:
 - 1) Failure to go through appropriate SCA defined procedures, as defined in the Governing Documents;
 - 2) The subject matter of the complaint is not appropriate for adjudication through the Complaint Procedure;
 - 3) Failure to provide required information;
 - 4) Any complaint that has already been appropriately resolved through SCA or East Kingdom channels; or
 - 5) Any complaint that the Crown finds invalid.
3. Grievance Committee.
- a. As part of the Complaint Procedure, the Crown may direct the formation of a Grievance Committee to settle a complaint.
 - b. Within seven (7) days after the Notification Date, the Kingdom Seneschal will notify the Complainant(s) and Respondent(s), in writing, that the Grievance Committee will be called to settle the dispute.
 - c. The Grievance Committee is composed of the following:
 - i. The Sovereign and Consort; or, at Their discretion, They each or both may choose a Peer not involved in the complaint to represent Them during the Complaint Procedure. The peer(s) must have consented to act in this capacity and be limited to act only in accordance with the Complaint Procedure. The Sovereign and/or Consort will advise the Kingdom Seneschal of Their decision to choose a representative within five (5) days of the Notification Date. If no notification is received in that time, it will be presumed that the Sovereign and/or Consort will not be selecting a representative;
 - ii. The Sovereign's Heir and Consort's Heir (if there are Heirs at the date the complaint is received by the Crown); or They may each choose a Peer not involved in the complaint to represent them during the Complaint Procedure. The peer(s) must have consented to act in this capacity and be limited to act only in accordance with the Complaint Procedure. The Sovereign's Heir and/or Consort's Heir will advise the Kingdom Seneschal of Their decision to choose a representative within five (5) days of the Notification Date. If no notification is received in that time, it will be presumed that the Heir(s) not responding will not be selecting a representative;
 - iii. Four of the East Kingdom's Greater Officers, to be selected by the Crown. It is recommended that one of the Four Greater Officers is the Kingdom Seneschal. If the complaint involves a matter involving the Rules of the List, one of the Four Greater Officers shall be the Earl Marshal; and
 - iv. An arbitrator mutually chosen by the parties. The Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) will draw the arbitrator from a pool of names, maintained by the Kingdom Seneschal. Within fifteen (15) days after the Notification Date, the Kingdom Seneschal will present the parties in dispute, in writing, with a list of five arbitrators. Under the supervision of the Kingdom Seneschal, the Respondent(s) and Complainant(s) will alternately remove names from the list of potential arbitrators until only one is left. The arbitrators must meet the following criteria:
 - a. They must volunteer, in writing;

- b. They must be of legal age of majority for all East Kingdom territories;
- c. They must be SCA members;
- d. They must have resided in the East Kingdom for at least two (2) years; and
- e. They must be armigerous. It is recommended that they be Peers.

If an arbitrator is not chosen within thirty (30) days of the commencement of this selection process, the Crown will select one from the list.

- d. The chosen arbitrator will then work with the Grievance Committee, the Complainant(s), and Respondent(s) to achieve a settlement. The deadline for such a settlement is sixty (60) days after the selection of an arbitrator.
 - e. If no resolution can be made, or if the Complainant(s) and/or the Respondent(s) fail to participate in the Grievance Committee, the complaint passes back to the Crown, who may make a decision on the complaint, dismiss the matter, or submit the matter to a Court of Chivalry. All decisions made under this process are final and may not be appealed, except as otherwise provided by Corpora.
4. Courts of Chivalry.
- a. Another possible outcome of the Complaint Procedure is the formation of a Court of Chivalry to provide recommendations to the Crown.
 - b. Within fifteen (15) days after the Notification Date, the Kingdom Seneschal will select an adjudicator from the Peers of the East Kingdom and inform them of their appointment. Where the complaint arises solely from a single or multiple incidents involving the Rules of the List, the Earl Marshal will select the adjudicator. The adjudicator may not be the Crown, Heirs, a Kingdom Officer, or related by blood, marriage, fealty, or household ties to the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s), or be a witness to the incident(s) giving rise to the Court of Chivalry.
 - c. Within fifteen (15) days of selection, the adjudicator will provide the Respondent(s) with a copy of the complaint, and request from them a response. This notification will be in the form of postal mail requiring the Respondent's signature.
 - d. Within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the complaint, the Respondent(s) shall provide a response to the adjudicator.
 - i. Within five (5) days of receipt, the adjudicator will provide the Complainant(s) with a copy of Respondent(s)' statement(s).
 - ii. Should the Respondent(s) fail to respond within the allocated time, their failure to respond will be deemed an admission of the truth of the complaint. In this instance, no Court of Chivalry need be scheduled and the adjudicator may make their decision as per Section 4.h. below.
 - e. The adjudicator will schedule the Court of Chivalry to occur within sixty (60) days of receipt of the Respondent(s)' response, but with at least thirty-five (35) days notice. If the adjudicator, Kingdom Seneschal, Earl Marshal (if required to attend), Complainant(s), and Respondent(s) cannot agree upon a date, time, and location for the Court of Chivalry, the Crown is empowered to select one. If the Respondent(s) refuses to participate in scheduling of conducting a Court of Chivalry, the adjudicator may immediately make their decision as per Section 4.h. below.
 - f. No less than thirty (30) days in advance of the Court of Chivalry, the Complainant(s) and the Respondent(s) will submit any supplemental statements of their positions, with supporting statements by witnesses (if any), to the adjudicator. Such supporting statements must meet the following criteria:
 - i. They must be in writing;
 - ii. They must contain the Society name, legal name, address, phone number (if available) and email address (if available) of the individual making the statement or declaration; and
 - iii. No less than twenty (20) days in advance of the Court of Chivalry, the adjudicator will submit copies of each party's statements and supporting statements by witnesses to the other party. At that time the adjudicator will decide whether they will permit live testimony, and they will make that decision known. Should the adjudicator not allow live witnesses, neither the Complainant(s) nor Respondent(s) will be allowed to present live witnesses, but both may gather and present as many additional statements from witnesses or supporters as they desire. These statements need not be submitted to the adjudicator or the other party in advance, but copies must be provided at the Court of Chivalry, and they must also meet the criteria specified in Sections 4.f.i. through 4.f.iii. above
 - g. Operation of a Court of Chivalry.
 - i. The adjudicator, Kingdom Seneschal, Complainant(s), and Respondent(s) must attend the Court of Chivalry. In the instance where the complaint arises from an incident(s) involving the Rules of the List, the Earl Marshal must attend the Court of Chivalry. The Crown may

- also attend, if They so choose. The Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) may each be accompanied by up to two other gentles who are not witnesses or have not provided statements or declarations for use during the Court of Chivalry. Said gentles accompanying the Complainant(s) and or Respondent(s) may not act as representatives of the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s) during the Court. Otherwise, the Court of Chivalry is closed to the populace, and only the above described gentles, and a stenographer selected by the adjudicator, if any, may be present for any part of the proceedings.
- ii. The adjudicator will ensure that an audio recording of the Court of Chivalry is made. They will, upon request in writing, provide a copy of the recording to the Complainant(s) and/or Respondent(s) no more than thirty (30) days after they have rendered their decision. Either the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s) may, at their own expense, arrange for a stenographic transcript to be made during the proceedings. Should either party make such arrangements, they will, no later than fifteen (15) days before the proceedings, inform the adjudicator, the Kingdom Seneschal, the Earl Marshal (if required to attend), and the other party of their decision and provide the identity of the stenographer. Should either the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s) obtain such a transcript, they must provide copies to the Kingdom Seneschal, the Earl Marshal (if required to attend), and the other party within fifteen days of their receipt of the transcript from the stenographer.
 - iii. The Complainant(s) will present their complaint first. The Respondent(s) will then present their defense. Rebuttal arguments may only be made if requested by the adjudicator. If live witnesses are permitted, their testimony will be taken in order set by the adjudicator. At any time during the proceeding, the adjudicator may ask relevant questions of the Complainant(s), Respondent(s) and/or permitted live witnesses.
 - iv. During the Court of Chivalry, the Kingdom Seneschal will act as the sole arbiter of East Kingdom Law and the Governing Documents. When the complaint involves Rules of the List, the Earl Marshal will act as the arbiter of the Earl Marshal Policies.
- h. Outcome of the Court of Chivalry.
- i. Within thirty (30) days after the proceedings of the Court of Chivalry have concluded, the adjudicator will decide whether the allegations of the Complainant(s) against the Respondent(s) were or were not proven, and they will issue their findings in writing to the Crown, Kingdom Seneschal, the Earl Marshal (if required), the Complainant(s), and the Respondent(s). If the adjudicator finds that the allegations were proven, the adjudicator will make a recommendation for one of the following courses of action:

Such appeal must be in writing. The Crown will issue Their decision within twenty days after the appeal deadline. Any appeal of the decision of The Crown must be made to the Board of Directors of the SCA.

B. Courts of Courtesy

1. A Court of Courtesy may be called by the Consort upon the Consort's acceptance of a petition by an uninvolved party.
