Section I. Laws of the East Kingdom

A. Body of Laws

1. All previous Laws not listed in East Kingdom Law are repealed. Only the Laws listed herein along with the Governing Documents of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. (SCA, Inc.) are in effect in the East Kingdom.
2. In the case of any conflict between East Kingdom Law and the Governing Documents of the SCA, Inc., including definitions of terms, the Governing Documents take precedence.

B. Crown's Word

The Crown's word has the force of Law except where it conflicts with East Kingdom Law or the Governing Documents of the SCA, Inc.

C. Laws and Edicts

1. Laws may be enacted, amended, or repealed only by the Crown, after discussion at Their Curia Regis. Once enacted, Laws remain part of East Kingdom Law unless amended or repealed.
2. Edicts are decrees issued by the Crown. They last for the duration of the issuing Reign only, and may not repeal or suspend East Kingdom Law.
3. Laws and Edicts take effect upon announcement at an event and the subsequent publication in Pikestaff.
4. Any changes to East Kingdom Law must be received by the Kingdom Chronicler no later than thirty days after the Curia Regis at which the changes were decided. Changes received after this deadline will not be published and therefore will not take effect.
5. The Kingdom Chronicler may not publish any changes to East Kingdom Law without the signatures of the Sovereign, Consort, and Kingdom Seneschal.

D. Current Version Maintenance

The current version of the East Kingdom Law, including a Table of Contents and Index, will be maintained by the Kingdom Seneschal and made available on the Kingdom website.

E. Official Language

The official written language of the East Kingdom is English. Laws, policies, reports, or other materials may be translated into other languages. However, in case of discrepancies between the original English documents and any translations, the English language version will take precedence and serve as the official version.

Section II. The Crown

A. Definition and Rank

The Crown is the Office of Sovereign and Consort. The Sovereign and Consort have equal status, precedence, and power. They may use any title(s) allowed by the Governing Documents of the SCA, Inc. and the College of Heralds

B. Duties and Powers

1. The Crown must know and uphold East Kingdom Law and the Governing Documents of the SCA, Inc.
2. The Crown will chair the Curia Regis.
3. The Crown must attend Their Coronation, the Crown Tournament to determine Their Heirs, and the Coronation of Their Heirs.
4. No Sovereign or Consort may hold any other office or court appointment at any time during Their Reign, with the exception of the position of Territorial Baron or Baroness. Any such office or appointment, with accompanying files, must be turned over to a deputy or successor before Coronation.

5. The Crown and Heirs of the East Kingdom shall use Their officially-provided online account for all business of Their office.
6. Within one month following the Coronation of their successors, the former Crown must relinquish all Royal files in their possession, either to the new Crown or to the Kingdom Archivist as appropriate.
7. Within one month following the Coronation of their successors, the former Crown must return all regalia used during their reign to the Kingdom Chamberlain. The Chamberlain must verify within one month of the return that all regalia were returned and in good condition, and so affirm to the Kingdom Chancellor of the Exchequer to release the regalia deposit in accordance with East Kingdom Financial Policy.
8. The Crown may oversee treaties between the East and other Kingdoms according to the following procedures.
 - a. The Crown and Heirs of the East Kingdom must all specifically agree, in writing, to the wording of a proposed treaty.
 - b. The Crown and Heirs must then consult with no fewer than six Royal Peers of Ducal or County rank who reside in the East Kingdom regarding the wording of the proposed treaty. A list of the Royal Peers consulted will be kept on file with the Kingdom Seneschal.
 - c. If, after consulting with the Royal Peers, the Crown chooses to alter the wording of the proposed treaty, the process will begin again.
 - d. To be enacted, a treaty must be signed by the Sovereign and Consort of the East Kingdom. The treaty may also be signed by any other parties as deemed necessary or appropriate by the Crown of the East Kingdom or by the Crown or Law of the Kingdom with which the treaty is established.
 - e. Once signed by the parties listed above, a copy of the treaty will be kept on file by the Kingdom Seneschal.
 - f. Treaties may only be amended or revoked by following the same procedures outlined above.
9. The Crown will invest the victor and consort of Their Crown Tournament as both Heirs of the East Kingdom and Protectors of The Crown Principality of Tir Mara.
 - a. This designation is ceremonial in nature, and does not confer any ability to warrant subordinate officers, proclaim banishments, or bestow armigerous awards, without specific Crown approval for specific recipients.
 - b. The Heirs may use any title allowed by the Governing Documents of the SCA, Inc. and the College of Heraldry to indicate this ceremonial designation, including "Prince and Princess of Tir Mara" as has been the custom.
 - c. The Crown will retain Their status as Protectors of Tir Mara during the time between Their Coronation and the Crown Tournament to choose Their successors.

C. Crown Tournament

1. Eligibility
 - a. Each competitor in a Royal List must be fighting for a prospective consort. A gentle may only be a member of one entrant couple, though both gentles of the same combatant couple may enter the tournament, each to fight for the other.
 - b. All entrant couples must submit a letter of intent (LoI) to the Heirs and Kingdom Seneschal no later than thirty days prior to Crown Tournament. This requirement may be waived, on a case-by-case basis, by the Heirs (or by the Crown, if after Coronation).
 - i. The LoI may be submitted via the online survey link provided by the Kingdom Seneschal (preferred method), or by email.
 - ii. The LoI must include the Society name, legal name, postal address, residence address (if different from postal address), years of residency in the East Kingdom, telephone number, membership number, and membership expiration date for both entrants.
 - iii. In the LoI:
 1. at least one member of each entrant couple must affirm that they do not have knowledge of any basis why they would not be able to cross the United States/Canadian international border ("border") for the duration of their reign; or
 2. if any of the events designated as mandatory to validate a reign per Section II.B.3. will require travel across the border during the reign for which the Crown Tournament is being held, both members of each entrant couple must affirm that they do not have knowledge of any basis why they would not be able to cross the border for the duration of their reign.

- c. No gentle will enter a Crown Tournament without intending an honorable attempt to compete for the Crown. Consorts are required to be present at Crown Tournament, unless waived by the Crown.
 - d. All entrants and consorts must be acceptable to The Crown.
 - e. All entrants and consorts must be at least eighteen years of age.
 - f. All entrants and consorts must be members of the SCA with access to Pikestaff at their residence, and be able to provide proof that their membership is valid through at least thirty days after the date of Crown Tournament. So long as the entrants meet the minimum membership requirements to enter Crown Tournament as set forth in the Governing Documents of the SCA, Inc., the Crown may waive this requirement that entrants have SCA memberships which are valid through at least thirty days after the date of Crown Tournament, on a case-by-case basis.
 - g. Each entrant and consort must be a subject and resident of the East Kingdom, have resided in the East Kingdom for at least one year immediately prior to the Crown Tournament, and must be able to demonstrate reasonable levels of participation in diverse activities in the Kingdom during that period. The Crown may waive the residency requirements for subjects of the East Kingdom, on a case-by-case basis, in understanding of the constraints sometimes imposed by military service, employment, or similar circumstances.
 - h. Exceptions to Eligibility
 - i. No Royal of the East Kingdom or of any of its Principalities may enter any Crown or Coronet Tournament.
 - ii. The Kingdom Seneschal and the Kingdom Minister of the Lists may only enter the last regularly-scheduled Crown Tournament held during their terms in office, provided a deputy acceptable to the Crown or Their designated representative has been appointed to assume the respective officer's duties.
 - iii. The Kingdom Earl Marshal may only enter a Crown Tournament provided a deputy acceptable to the Crown or Their designated representative has been appointed to assume the Kingdom Earl Marshal's duties.
2. Withdrawal and Removal
- a. Any entrant may withdraw from a Crown Tournament at any point in time by notifying the Kingdom Minister of the Lists. In this situation, both members of the entrant couple will be eliminated from the Crown Tournament, save that in the case of a combatant couple fighting each for the other one entrant may withdraw but the other entrant may continue, with the express permission of the withdrawing entrant.
 - b. Any entrant may be removed from a Crown Tournament at any time by the Kingdom Marshal of Armored Combat, the Earl Marshal, or the Crown for marshallate infractions or any infractions of the Rules of the List. In this situation, both entrant and consort will be eliminated from the Crown Tournament.
 - c. If a Crown Tournament must be re-fought, the Crown may disqualify any entrants They deem responsible for the invalidation of the originally scheduled Crown Tournament.

D. The Succession

- 1. There will be two Reigns per year, with Coronations and Crown Tournaments to be scheduled as stated in Section VIII.A.
- 2. With the exception of Section II.D.2.b. below, if either the Sovereign or the Consort is unable to fulfill the duties of the Crown, the remaining Monarch will serve the remainder of the Reign as Regent.
 - a. The Regent, in compliance with the Governing Documents of the SCA, Inc. and East Kingdom Law, and unless expressly prohibited in either document, will have all the duties and powers of the Crown, as if both Monarchs were still reigning, including, but not limited to:
 - i. Bestowal of awards

 - ii. The returning Monarch must provide documentation of the emergency to the Regent, if any, and the Greater Officers. A majority of the Greater Officers and Regent, if any, combined, must agree by 2/3 vote that the emergency was valid.

3. If both the Sovereign and the Consort are unable to fulfill Their duties, the Crown will pass into the keeping of the Kingdom Seneschal in trust for the Heirs, until such time as the Heirs ascend the throne. The Kingdom Seneschal will not be entitled to bestow awards, hold a Curia Regis, nor execute treaties on behalf of the East.
 - a. In the event that the Seneschal is holding the Crown during the temporary absence of both Sovereign and Consort, pursuant to Section II.D.2.b., and if either or both Monarch(s) are able to return prior to the end of Their Reign, the Seneschal shall return the Crown to the returning Monarch(s) upon the favorable vote by the Greater Officers and Regent required by II.D.2.b.ii. The returning Monarch(s) are then entitled to resume all duties and powers until the end of Their Reign.
 - b. If the Kingdom Seneschal is holding the Crown during the temporary absence of both Sovereign and Consort, pursuant to Section II.D.2.b. and there are no Heirs, the Kingdom Seneschal will preside over the next regularly-scheduled Crown Tournament.

If the Kingdom Seneschal is holding the Crown for any reason other than pursuant to Section II.D.2.b. and there are no Heirs, the Kingdom Seneschal will preside over Crown Tournament, which must be held at the earliest possible date. This Crown Tournament need not follow the regional rotation.
 - i. The victor of this Crown Tournament and their consort will be crowned as Monarchs that day by whichever Royal Peer or Peers They so choose.
 - ii. The new Crown will schedule a special Crown Tournament to ensure the succession as soon as possible. The special Crown Tournament need not follow the regional rotation and must be held within ninety days of the Crown's ascension to the throne.  - d. If the Kingdom Seneschal is presiding over a Crown Tournament:
 - i. Letters of Intent containing the information specified in Section II.C.1.b. must be submitted to the Kingdom Seneschal. The deadline for these special letters of intent is two hours before the scheduled start time for the Tournament. The Kingdom Seneschal may not accept incomplete letters and those letters that do not completely conform with East Kingdom Law as set forth in Section II.C.1.b.
 - ii. The Kingdom Seneschal will not have the authority to ban anyone from participating in that Crown Tournament who meets the requirements as set forth in East Kingdom Law and the Governing Documents of the SCA, Inc.
 - iii. The Kingdom Seneschal will not have the right to impose any extra conditions upon participation in the Crown Tournament.
 - iv. The format of such a Crown Tournament will be a straight double elimination list, with the first round being random draw, and with the final round being modeled after the previous Crown Tournament.
4. If either of the Heirs is unable to assume the throne, the Crown, in consultation with the remaining Heir and the Kingdom Seneschal, shall determine whether the Heir will be invested and serve as stated in Section II.D.2. above, or if a new Crown Tournament will be held at the earliest possible date to ensure the succession.

These statements need not be submitted to the adjudicator or the other party in advance, but copies must be provided at the Court of Chivalry, and they must also meet the criteria specified in Sections 4.f.i. through 4.f.iii. above
 - g. Operation of a Court of Chivalry.
 - i. The adjudicator, Kingdom Seneschal, Complainant(s), and Respondent(s) must attend the Court of Chivalry. In the instance where the complaint arises from an incident(s) involving

- the Rules of the List, the Earl Marshal must attend the Court of Chivalry. The Crown may also attend, if They so choose. The Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) may each be accompanied by up to two other gentles who are not witnesses or have not provided statements or declarations for use during the Court of Chivalry. Said gentles accompanying the Complainant(s) and or Respondent(s) may not act as representatives of the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s) during the Court. Otherwise, the Court of Chivalry is closed to the populace, and only the above described gentles, and a stenographer selected by the adjudicator, if any, may be present for any part of the proceedings.
- ii. The adjudicator will ensure that an audio recording of the Court of Chivalry is made. They will, upon written request, provide a copy of the recording to the Complainant(s) and/or Respondent(s) no more than thirty days after they have rendered their decision. Either the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s) may, at their own expense, arrange for a stenographic transcript to be made during the proceedings. Should either party make such arrangements, they will, no later than fifteen days before the proceedings, inform the adjudicator, the Kingdom Seneschal, the Earl Marshal (if required to attend), and the other party of their decision and provide the identity of the stenographer. Should either the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s) obtain such a transcript, they must provide copies to the Kingdom Seneschal, the Earl Marshal (if required to attend), and the other party within fifteen days of their receipt of the transcript from the stenographer.
 - iii. The Complainant(s) will present their complaint first. The Respondent(s) will then present their defense. Rebuttal arguments may only be made if requested by the adjudicator. If live witnesses are permitted, their testimony will be taken in order set by the adjudicator. At any time during the proceeding, the adjudicator may ask relevant questions of the Complainant(s), Respondent(s) and/or permitted live witnesses.
 - iv. During the Court of Chivalry, the Kingdom Seneschal will act as the sole arbiter of East Kingdom Law and the Governing Documents of the SCA, Inc. When the complaint involves Rules of the List, the Earl Marshal will act as the arbiter of the Earl Marshal Policies.
- h. Outcome of the Court of Chivalry.
- i. Within thirty days after the proceedings of the Court of Chivalry have concluded, the adjudicator will decide whether the allegations of the Complainant(s) against the Respondent(s) were or were not proven, and they will issue their findings in writing to the Crown, Kingdom Seneschal, the Earl Marshal (if required), the Complainant(s), and the Respondent(s). If the adjudicator finds that the allegations were proven, the adjudicator will make a recommendation for one of the following courses of action:
 - a. Recommendation to the Crown for banishment from the Presence.
 - b. Recommendation to the Crown for banishment from the Realm.
 - c. Recommendation to the Crown to request banishment from the Society; such sentence can only be implemented by the Board of Directors of the SCA, Inc.
 - d. Recommendation to the Crown to request degradation from the Peerage; such sentence can only be implemented by the Board of Directors of the SCA, Inc.

 - f. Recommendation to the Crown for Abatement of Arms.
 - g. Recommendation to the Earl Marshal for temporary or permanent revocation of authorization, with the approval of the Crown. If temporary, a period of time must be stated and the individual(s) must reauthorize.
 - h. Recommendation to the Crown for prohibition from participation in future Royal Lists for a set period of time.
 - i. Recommendation to the Crown for the individual(s)' prohibition from holding office at a certain level, or at any level, for a set period of time.
 - j. Recommendation to the Crown for private or public sanction.
 - k. Recommendation to the Earl Marshal for private or public sanction, only to be imposed for violations of the Rules of the List.
 - l. Other such reasonable specific actions as may be decided by the Crown.
 - ii. Either the Complainant(s) or Respondent(s) may appeal the recommendation of the adjudicator to the Crown within twenty days of receipt of the written recommendation. Such appeal must be in writing. The Crown will issue Their decision within twenty days after the appeal deadline. Any appeal of the decision of The Crown must be made to the Board of Directors of the SCA, Inc.

B. Courts of Courtesy

1. A Court of Courtesy may be called by the Consort upon the Consort's acceptance of a petition by an uninvolved party. However, Courts of Courtesy may not be called for interpersonal financial disputes, affairs of the heart, incompetence in office, violations of the Rules of the List, or for alleged violations of mundane law.
2. As individual cases demand individual treatment, the format for Courts Of Courtesy are flexible. However, one of the following formats is recommended.
 - a. A hearing before a panel of gentles of the Consort's choice; or
 - b. A hearing before the Consort alone.
3. All other details of the Court of Courtesy are up to the discretion of the Consort except:
 - a. All parties must agree in advance to abide by the decision of the Consort.
 - b. The Consort must arrange for a written or audio record to be made of the proceedings.
 - c. Formal courts of justice are reserved for Courts of Chivalry.
4. The decision of the Consort is final and cannot be appealed, nor can the same case be brought before a succeeding Consort. The decision must be in accordance with East Kingdom Law, the Governing Documents of the SCA, Inc., and mundane law.
